Leave Policy

General leave policy

Unless specified otherwise, employees referred to in this policy mean permanent full-time or part-time employees. Casual employees are not entitled to any type of paid leave.

All employees are entitled to leave in accordance with the relevant awards or agreements and statutory provisions. Where the entitlements or practices in this document conflict, the applicable award, workplace agreement, employment contract or employment law takes precedence.

All planned leave has to be mutually agreed, and take into account workloads and the employee's needs. Leave must be approved 20 working days in advance, except when the employee can't anticipate the absence. Any documents regarding leave will be kept on the employee's personnel file.

Annual leave policy

Each full time employee is entitled to a minimum of 20 days annual leave a year, entitlements are calculated from the date they started work and accrue in accordance with workplace relations legislation or industrial instruments. Part time employees accrue annual leave on a pro-rated basis based on the number of hours worked.

Annual leave is cumulative and if untaken, is paid out on termination of employment.

Annual leave counts towards continuous service (used when calculating long service leave). Applications for annual leave are required to be lodged 20 working days in advance.

An employee is expected to take accrued annual leave for business close down periods. If insufficient leave is accrued, Flashbay Pty Ltd may direct an employee to take unpaid leave.

Flashbay Pty Ltd will decide on a case-by-case basis whether it will agree with an employee to 'cash out' annual leave as permitted by workplace relations legislation or any industrial instrument.

In some circumstances, leave in advance of what leave has accrued may be approved. This is conditional on the employee agreeing to the business deducting any advance in the event of termination, or to the employee accepting leave without pay.

Personal (sick) leave policy

Each full time employee is entitled to a minimum of 10 days of personal/carer's leave every 12 months which can all be taken as carer's leave if required. Paid personal leave accrues at the rate of 1.2 days per month of service and is cumulative, but if untaken, is not paid out on termination of employment.

Part time employees accrue personal leave on a pro-rated basis based on the number of hours worked.

An employee should notify his/her manager as soon as possible if they are unable to attend work due to illness or injury. To be eligible for paid leave, , two days or more consecutive days of sick leave or a pattern of leave being taken on a day preceding or following a weekend or public holiday, will require a medical certificate being provided as evidence.

At Management's discretion, should a medical certificate not be supplied where deemed necessary the employee may be denied payment for that episode of leave taken..

It is always ideal for an employee to arrange personal appointments out of work hours however Flashbay Pty Ltd understands that this cannot always be the case. Flashbay Pty Ltd requests 24 hours notice should you feel a personal day be deemed necessary. Management have the right to ask your reasons for the requested time however understand and accept an employee's right to privacy and discretion.

Carer's leave policy

Carer's leave is available to an employee for the care or support of an ill family or household member or, if an unexpected emergency affects a family or household member. It is available to be taken as part of your personal/carer's (sick) leave entitlement and is dealt with as above.

Employees are entitled to take up to two days unpaid carer's leave for each occasion of family or household member illness or unexpected emergency, however an employee cannot take unpaid carer's leave if they could instead take paid carer's leave.

Compassionate leave policy

Compassionate leave is paid leave taken by an employee to spend time with a family member/member of the employee's household, who has a personal illness, or injury, that poses a serious threat to his/her life, or after the death of a family member/member of the employee's household.

Each employee is entitled to a period of two days paid compassionate leave for each occasion where a family member has died, or the employee needs to spend time with a seriously ill family member. Additional unpaid leave maybe granted at management discretion.

Long service leave policy

Employees are entitled to long service leave in line with New South Wales long service leave laws (or per a relevant Award or Agreement).

Parental leave policy

Parental leave

Employees (including a de facto or same sex partner, or single person) who are expecting a child or adopting a child are eligible for 52 weeks of parental leave if they are:

- permanent full-time or part-time with at least 12 months service prior to the expected date of birth or adoption placement

After birth or adoption, the parent with responsibility for the care of the child is entitled to take parental leave. Employees who are pregnant may commence leave up to six weeks before the expected date.

Under the Fair Work Act 2009 and since January 1st 2011, employees who are taking parental leave, may be eligible to receive payments for part of their parental leave. Any payment due is paid by the Government at the minimum wage rate, however Flashbay Pty Ltd will facilitate payment into your account. Please refer to Centrelink to assess your options and eligibility and to complete the necessary documentation prior to taking parental leave.

<https://www.dss.gov.au/our-responsibilities/families-and-children/programmes-services/paid-parental-leave-scheme>

Employees may request to extend their parental leave by a further 12 months (for a total of 24 months maximum), which must be submitted in writing at least four weeks before the end of the original 12 months unpaid parental leave.

Flashbay Pty Ltd will respond in writing within 21 days and may refuse only on reasonable business grounds. The written response will include details if the request is refused.

Parental leave for Dads and partners

Since January 2013, Dad's and Partners of employees on parental leave may also be eligible to take up to 2 weeks paid leave. This leave is paid at the minimum wage and may be taken at the same time by both members of an employee couple, with the period of concurrent leave starting on the day of the birth (unless the manager agrees to other arrangements).

Applying for leave

An employee wishing to take parental leave must provide written notice at least 10 weeks before starting the leave (or as soon as is practicable) including the intended leave start and end dates.

Leave dates or any changes of dates must be confirmed at least four weeks before the leave starts and as soon as possible if the proposed date changes due to any unforeseen events. The manager will confirm the leave and any affected entitlements such as continuous service in writing.

Adoption

Because Flashbay Pty Ltd recognises that the timing of placement for an adopted child may be uncertain, employees should keep their manager informed of any changes to the likely placement date and commencement of leave.

Paid leave

Annual leave

If the employee has paid annual leave available, he or she may, in agreement with the manager, take some or all of that leave in addition to their parental leave.

Time off for antenatal appointments, adoption interviews or examinations

Personal leave may be available for attendance at medical appointments. Appointment times and the availability of leave should be discussed with the manager.

An employee may take up to two days unpaid pre-adoption leave. Employees must provide notice of the leave including expected leave period as soon as practicable (which may be after the leave has started).

If an employee requires more than two days pre-adoption leave, they should discuss their requirements with their manager.

Leave for pregnancy related illness

If an employee is ill during her pregnancy, she may access her ordinary sick leave entitlements, including any accrued leave.

If an employee experiences extended illness due to pregnancy, she can access unpaid 'special maternity leave' for the period her treating doctor certifies is necessary. Special maternity leave is included in the 52 weeks available parental leave period.

The employee must make a special maternity leave application as soon as practicable which details the period of leave required. The manager may request a medical certificate and if so, this must be provided by the employee.

Loss of a child while pregnant

If the pregnancy ends within 28 weeks before the due date without a live birth, the employee may take unpaid 'special maternity leave' for the period her treating doctor certifies is necessary. Unpaid parental leave is not available in this situation, instead special maternity leave applies.

The employee must make a special maternity leave application as soon as practicable, specifying the expected leave period and providing a medical certificate, if this is requested by the manager.

Flashbay Pty Ltd will be sensitive to the personal issues associated with this type of leave.

During parental leave

Flashbay Pty Ltd respects that some employees do not want any contact while on leave, and others do. Fair Work allows for employees to access up to 10 days keeping in touch days without affecting their parental leave entitlements. Any keeping in touch days or part days are paid at the employee's normal rate of pay.

<https://www.fairwork.gov.au/leave/maternity-and-parental-leave/when-on-parental-leave/keeping-in-touch-days>

The manager should discuss with the employee what sort of communication the employee would like while on leave, and record this agreement.

While an employee is on parental leave, Flashbay Pty Ltd will ensure that the employee is considered and kept informed of significant changes that may occur in the business.

Where a decision will have a significant effect on the status, pay or location of the pre-parental leave position, Flashbay Pty Ltd will take all reasonable steps to inform the employee and discuss the effect of the decision. During any restructures, employees on parental leave will be treated no less favourably than other employees and will be kept informed of the process.

If an employee has applied for less than 52 weeks parental leave, they can extend the period of leave once to take the total leave up to a maximum of 52 weeks. The employee must give at least four weeks notice prior to the end date of the original leave period. A period of parental leave may be reduced by agreement between Flashbay Pty Ltd and the employee.

An employee can resign while on parental leave but they must give the required notice of resignation as set out in their employment contract.

Employees should not undertake any activity during leave which is inconsistent with the employment contract, including working at other employment and they should remain responsible for the care of the child.

The employee's position may be filled on a temporary basis while they are on leave. Flashbay Pty Ltd will notify the replacement employee that their employment in this role is temporary and that the (parental leave) employee has the right to return to their pre-leave position.

Leave without pay policy

Management has the discretion to approve leave without pay that an employee is not otherwise entitled to.

Jury duty policy

An employee is entitled to paid leave for jury duty in accordance with the minimum amounts and durations specified by New South Wales legislation or per a relevant Award or Agreement.

Emergency services leave policy

If an employee needs to take temporary absence from work because of voluntary emergency management activities (for example, as a volunteer dealing with an emergency or natural disaster as a member of SES, CFA or Army Reserve) then they should ask management for leave as soon as possible after they become aware of the need to take leave. If an employee has no leave accrual to draw upon, this will be taken as unpaid leave.

Flashbay Pty Ltd will support such activities wherever possible, as an important community service.

Flashbay Pty Ltd may require evidence of these activities at its discretion.
